

Integrated Project Controls

Saleh Elshobokshi

Project Controls Lead

Laing O'Rourke Australia

This will present a case study of how the team on a mega infrastructure project in Australia took an approach to integrate processes and systems to form to a truly efficient management system. The presentation will touch on three main aspects that make this case a success; People, Process and Technology. The presentation will also take the audience through real examples.